

Aromo Private Reserve Syrah Maule Valley 2019

Henriquez Hermanos Limitada - Viña El Aromo, Maule, Chile

LCBO # 14128 | 13.5% alc./vol. | $16.95 | Release: 02-Oct-2021

"Some very attractive aromas of fresh blackberries and dark cherries here, as well as spicy and peppery fragrance. Full of interest. The palate has such richly defined blackberries, swathed in fluffy, fine tannins. Builds smoothly into the long finish. Drink or hold." Score – 94p (James Suckling)

Terroir & History:

Winery was originally founded by French company Estansan in 1922. In 1940 local winegrower, Victor Henriquez Solar acquired the winery. Now the winery is fully modernised and has 320 Ha of vineyards in most important and oldest region, Maule Valley - southern Central Valley. The weather conditions of the plots vary greatly depending on proximity to the ocean or the Andes.

Vinification:

Hand-picked. Fermentation at ~25°C for ~7 days. Malolactic fermentation contact with oak. 60% of the wine aged in French (70%) & American (30%) oak for 6 months.

Variety: Syrah 100%

Residual sugar: 5 g/L

Serving suggestion and food pairing: Decant and serve in a fine glass at 17°C with grilled veggies and meats, baked pork or aged cheese.
