Heavily inspired by the Rhône, this wine is medium bodied and both savoury and fruity. Dry, mineral and filed with aromas of peppery Mediterranean herbs akin to the French "garrigue" but with that briny Croatian touch.

Terroir & History:

The Bibić family has been preoccupied with viniculture and wine production in Nečven Grad u Promini, in the vicinity of Skradin since the 15th century. After the Second World War, grandfather Petar restored the vineyards and during the Homeland War, the whole property was destroyed. After the war in 1995, Alen, the grandson, restarted operations of Bibich. 20 Ha (of which 10 Ha owned): mostly Debit variety (originated from Turkey, now only in Šibenik hinterland).

Although Pošip originates from the Island of Korčula in southern Dalmatia, it also thrives on the seaside vineyards of Northern Dalmatia.

The vineyards are processed traditionally with minimal intervention.

Vinification:

Fermented with native yeast and aged in neutral used American oak for 2 years, it is evolved even its youth.

Variety: Grenache 100%

Serving suggestion and food pairing: Serve at 16°C. Enjoy with spit roast meats dressed with olive oil, garlic and Herbs de Provence.
