

REGIO MALBEC 2018

Scotto Cellars, California, USA

eCommerce # 24417 | 13.0 % alc./vol. | $19.95

The rich aroma of black berries and fruits, cherries, spices and violet petals. Juicy, thick, full flavour of the wine fills with velvety tones of black currant and blueberry, and silky tannins form a dense texture, which is in balance with refreshing acidity.

History and Terroir:

Anthony Scotto, Sr., of strong Italian heritage and tradition, started his winemaking career in the 1940 and moved from Brooklyn, NY to California in 1963. His Villa Armando label is now one of the oldest US wine brands. Today, Anthony III and his siblings represent the 5th generation of family winemakers at Scotto Cellars located in Lodi, the heart of California's wine country. Climate here is Mediterranean featuring warm days and cool nights, most of the rain falls in winter months while vines are dormant.
