Nagygombos Jatekos Rose Cuvee 2020

Nagygombos Boraszat Ltd., Mátra, Hungary

eCommerce # 24955 | 12.5% alc./vol. | $16.95 *subject to change

Pale pink. An intense nose with various red fruits leads to a palate displaying redcurrants, strawberries and cherries complemented by intriguing notes of herbs and refreshing tangerines. An easy-going, likeable style of rosé.

Terroir:

The Nagygombos Winery is bought by the Barta family in 2009. 170 Ha vineyards located at Mátra wine region - one of the most northern in Hungary, its climate is more balanced than those in more southern areas. The south, south-western and western aspect of the vineyards together with the lime nyirok clay bedrock with sandy loess soils help flavourful fruit aromas to develop.

Vinification:

Handpicked, temperature controlled cold fermented.

Varieties: Merlot 50%, Cabernet Sauvignon 50%

Residual sugar: 1 g/L

Serving suggestion and food pairing: Serve at 12°C. Perfect accompaniment for seafood and barbecue, also suitable for spicy dishes. Excellent wine to drink on a warm summer day.
