

VIN DU MARJE - WHITE 2020

Marjeyoun, South Lebanon

Les Vigne Du Marje, Caracas Area Beirut, Lebanon

eCommerce # 253921 | 13.0 % alc./vol.

First born of the south of Lebanon. The white of the Vin du Marje is an explosion of aromas resulting in a peculiar mixture of Sauvignon Blanc, Viognier and Muscat Blanc à Petits Grains. It offers a balanced harmony of acidity and a strong and intense flavour that is delicate at the same time. Its yellow colour reflects the rays of the sun from the south of Lebanon where it originates.

Terroir:

Les Vignes Du Marje - new brand of wine launched in 2018. Located in the South of Lebanon, Jdeidet Marjeyoun is a town of warm and temperate climates. Winter months are rather rainy and cold and the summer months are warm and dry.

Vinification:

Hand harvested. Temperature controlled cold fermented.

Varieties: Viognier 65%, Sauvignon Blanc 30%, Muscat 5%

Residual sugar: 1 g/L

Serving suggestion and food pairing: Serve at 12°C. Perfect accompaniment for salads, wide varieties of sea food and shellfish (fruit de mer), roasted grilled chicken, veal, pork, spicy dished. Asian cuisine and even the known salty blue cheese.

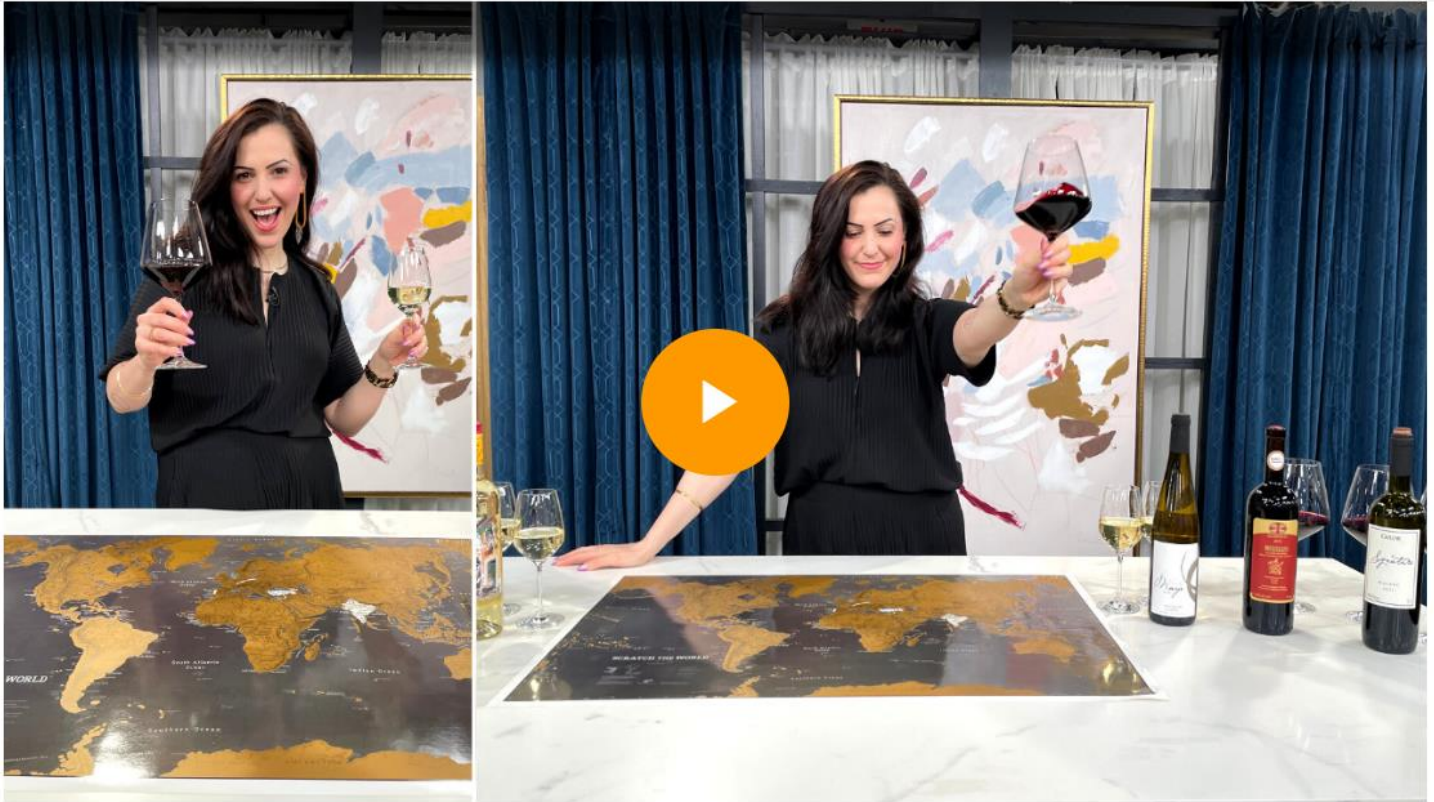

Representing Star Producers Globally,

Servicing Star Markets Locally

5 underrated wine regions around the world

Sommelier Renee Sferrazza unlocks a world of hidden wine gems with a lesson on underrated wines from around the world. "There is so much more going on — and we're going to dive into some of those unknown regions."