

DEBIT 2019

Vina Bibich p.t.o., Dalmatia, Croatia

eCommerce # 25467 | 13.0% alc./vol. | $35.95

Debit is an indigenous grape variety of Dalmatia. The name is rumoured to have come from Napoleon who rather enjoyed the local wines and would take payment, or "Debit", from the people in exchange for his protection.

The wine is a transparent refreshing expression of the variety. Fresh cut green apple dominates the aroma and flavour of the wine. Easy drinking, even fruity, there is enough pithy minerality, to keep the conscious drinker engaged.

Terroir & History:

The Bibić family has been preoccupied with viniculture and wine production in Nečven Grad u Promini, in the vicinity of Skradin since the 15th century. After the Second World War, grandfather Petar restored the vineyards and during the Homeland War, the whole property was destroyed. After the war in 1995, Alen, the grandson, restarted operations of Bibich. 20 Ha (of which 10 Ha owned): mostly Debit variety (originated from Turkey, now only in Šibenik hinterland). Although Pošip originates from the Island of Korčula in southern Dalmatia, it also thrives on the seaside vineyards of Northern Dalmatia.

The vineyards are processed traditionally with minimal intervention.

Vinification:

Fermented and aged in temperature-controlled stainless steel for 6 months.

Variety: Debit 100%

Serving suggestion and food pairing: Serve at 12°C. Great summer wine. Drink by itself, with fried seafood, or light, fresh Mediterranean cuisine.
