KREMLIN AWARD Classic Vodka, Kosher Best Wine Corporation, Russia

eCommerce # 311497 | 40.0% alc./vol. | $69.95 *subject to change

The balanced, elegant, deliciously mild taste of vodka has an original composition of shades of herbs, rye bread, cereal and citrus notes. In the finish there are sharp notes of white pepper, salt and juniper. The soft, light aroma is devoid of the characteristic sharpness of vodka; it conveys notes of fresh baking, green apple, powdered sugar, pepper and a wet stone.

History:

KREMLIN AWARD Classic Vodka is created by industry leading master distillers, who were able to re-create the Russian vodka, using ancient juniper-based recipe.

KREMLIN AWARD Classic reflects in its quality the best of the centuries-old experience of Russian vodka makers and the modern Russia traditions. The unique product born as a result of connecting the ancient heritage recipes and modern technology.

The finished blend remains in the tanks for two weeks and only after re-tasting it comes to bottling. KREMLIN AWARD Classic vodka is soft and has a long sweet after-taste.

Production:

Made from alcohol of the "Lux" variety, obtained as a result of the distillation of the best wheat varieties. Another important component is artesian water, which has undergone 7 degrees of purification, including through a nano-filter. A small oatmeal infusion results in appetizing bread aroma. After bottling aged for several months for "ripening", creating an interesting depth in taste.

Serving suggestion and food pairing: recommended to serve in pure form, perfectly complements a variety of dishes of Russian cuisine.
