"This is a distinctive and quite exciting blend of local varieties called Areni and Kamrahyut grown at high altitude of over 1000 metres. It has very lifted, fragrant nose of wild red berries, evergreen/juniper and floral. It is mid-weight, firm and juicy with great acidity and tension. The length is excellent."

Score – 92p for 2019 vintage (David Lawrason, WineAlign, 2020)

Terroir:

Armenia Wine is a family winery that started in 2006 in Armavir, a region in the western part of Armenia, the heart of the Ararat plain between Mount Ararat and Mount Aragats. Dry continental climate.

Vineyards are at ~1000 m. altitude.

Vinification:

Hand harvested at end September - early October. 2 weeks of fermentation at the controlled temperature ~27°C in stainless steel tanks and 2 weeks of maceration.

Varieties: Areni 65%, Kamrahyut 35%

Residual sugar: 2 g/L

Serving suggestion and food pairing: Serve at 16°C. Ideal for meats and cheeses.
