

GEFIRA RED, PGI EVIA 2019

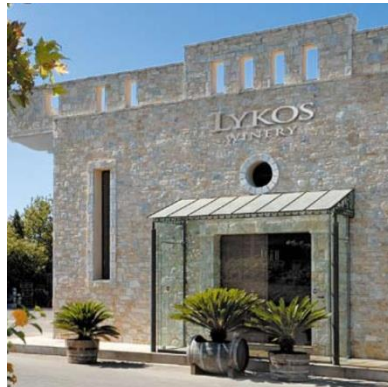

Lykos Winery, Evia, Greece

eCommerce # 36324 | 12.5% alc./vol. | $21.95

Bright ruby colour with purple highlights and complex aromas of rose and crispy red fruits like cherry and blueberry. Low tannins combined with a red fruity taste and light and fruity aftertaste.

Terroir:

The vineyards are located in island of Evia, in Central Greece, Vines benefit from southern exposure, and from gentle sea breeze. The unique cooperation of the indigenous/international blend, sun, earth, aura of Evia, particularly cold winter, human traditions with a grain of humor... all come together in the glass wonderfully.

Vinification:

Classic red vinification of ~5 days with fast extractions at 24°C.

Varieties: Cabernet Sauvignon 50%, Merlot 30%, Vradiano 20%

Residual sugar: 2 g/L

Serving suggestion and food pairing: Serve at ~15°C. Perfect accompaniment red sauce meat dishes, calf, poultry and cheeses.
