History and Terroir:

JSC Bagrationi 1882 is the first winery specialized in sparkling wine in Georgia, it was founded in 1937. The name of Bagrationi 1882 is connected to the name of Georgian Kings descendent Ivane Bagrationi – Mukhraneli, who started production of sparkling wines in Georgia using traditional method in the mid 19 century.

Bagrationi 1882 has vineyards in three regions of Georgia, this blend is created from the best grapes of two of these regions.

Tsitska grapes are sourced from the Imereti region in western Georgia that is known for its black soils.

Vinification:

Charmat Method. Fermented at a very low temperature with selected yeast strains to preserve the inherent fruit flavours. Second fermentation in pressure vessels.
