High quality distillates crafted from indigenous white Georgian grapes grown under the generous sun in Kakheti region, Eastern Georgia. It has a golden-copper colour, a complex bouquet with tones of chocolate, vanilla, oak, with a slight aroma of grapes and apricots. The taste of brandy is pronounced, harmonious, full, with shades of walnut and prunes, almonds and honey, has an exceptionally long aftertaste.

History:

The "Georgian Wine House" winery was founded in 1996 in the city of Gori and has 150 Ha vineyards in different PDO micro-zones. Georgian Wine House crafts traditional Georgian wines using modern technologies with minimal intervention.

Vinification:

Indigenous white Georgian grape – Rkatsiteli. The grape is being harvested by the end of August, when the acidity is high and sugar content is low, as this condition is optimal for the best brandy's production. The distillation method: Charentais still. Distillates aged in French oak barrels for over 5 years.

Serving suggestion and food pairing: Perfect as a digestif or enjoy with dry fruits, nuts, coffee, chocolate and cigars.
