Terroir & History :

LLC «Industrial & Commercial Company SHABO» is a Ukrainian winery/distillery, founded in 2003 on the site of the oldest winery in Ukraine. Located in the village of Shabo, Belgorod-Dnestrovsky district, Odessa region.

The beginning of cultural winemaking in this region is attributed to Swiss immigrants who founded here a winemaking settlement in 1822. More than 1200 hectares of vineyards, almost 4 million elite vines, about 20 cultivars of grapes from the best kennels in France, Italy and Georgia. The vineyards are planted on a peninsula located between the Black Sea and the Dniester estuary, at the same latitude as Burgundy (46.6°). Climate is a mixture of continental and Mediterranean.

Production:

Grapes: Aligoté, Sauvignon Blanc, Riesling, Chardonnay, and Pinot Blanc
Spirits pot-distilled and aged 3–5 years in American and French oak.

Serving suggestion and food pairing: Serve on its own in a fine sniffer or serve with coffee mousse, ice cream, hazelnut soufflé. A great base for natural cocktails.
