

Grand Theatre AOP Saint Emilion 2014

Univitis, Bordeaux, France

LCBO # 468678 | 12.9 % alc./vol. | $20.95 | Release: 18-Feb-2017

The 2014 vintage in Saint-Émilion saw a long growing season that granted the grapes extended hang time, allowing both Merlot and Cabernet to mature fully. This blend of Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc shows the ripeness of the vintage quite well, delivering an enticing floral and fruity profile with a layered, complex and structured character. Long and flavourful.

(VINTAGES panel, March 2016)

A typical round and generous Saint Emilion, well balanced in structure, due to the character of the Merlot grape which is dominant varietal in this wine. Lovely forward dark fruits nose: fresh, focused and delicately perfumed.

History:

Univitis is the largest group of wine producers in Bordeaux and the South West of France founded in 1984. Cooperative includes 230 producers, 2000 ha of vines.

Grand Theatre takes its name and the picture on its label from Bordeaux's prestigious Grand Théâtre. Inaugurated in 1780 this architectural heritage is the pride of the Maréchal de Richelieu, governor of the province, Dupré de Saint-Maur, intendant of the region, and Victor Louis, architect.

Vinification:

Traditional Bordelaise vinification through temperature controlled maceration. Early bottling to give the ripeness of the grape.

Variety: Merlot 60%, Cabernet sauvignon 30%, Cabernet Franc 10%

Residual Sugar: 2 g/L

Serving suggestion and food pairing: Best served at 15-16°C. Perfect accompaniment for veal, poultry and soft cheeses.

Berliner Wein Trophy'15 (13vntg)

Gold

