WITHOUT ADDED SULPHITES

This wine characterized by dark garnet colour. Powerful fruity mouth and complex flavour of red fruits like cherry and plum with berries shades. Fine silky tannins with long pleasant finish.

Terroir:

The Gerard Dupuy owned vineyards occupy 47 ha with two châteaux: Beauséjour and Langlais. Château Langlais vineyard is located in Puisseguin, East of Beausejour and represents 12 hectares on a typical soil of the region: clay & limestone. The non-use of chemicals goes back to 1947. The soils have never been treated with herbicides or insecticides.

The castle, owned by Gerard Dupuy. Towers of the castle and its foundation were built in the 14th century; old vintages are kept in it's cellar.

Vinification:

New cuvee WITHOUT ADDED SULPHITES (Langlais successfully crafts such wines since 2009). Handpicked. Vinification in stainless steel vats with thermo-regulation for one month. Ageing in steel vats.

Variety: Merlot 100%

Residual sugar: 2 g/L

Serving suggestion and food pairing: Serve at 16°C with red meat dishes, roasted duck and matured cheeses.
