

Poggio Ai Chiari igt Sangiovese Toscano 2007

Az.Agr.Colle Santa Mustiola, Tuscany, Italy

LCBO # 484550 | 14.5 % alc./vol. | $70.0 | Release: 02-Mar-2017

Poggio ai Chiari is well-known to enthusiasts for its authentic features as well as its incredible aging potential. The version presented, 2007, is another success: good colour, though slightly pronounced compared to the previous version, and a subtly floral nose with appealing fruit and bright minerality flashes. The vintage year adds richness and maturity without compromising its distinctive natural elegance.

Score – 3 Glasses (Gambero Rosso Italian Wines, 2015)

100% Sangiovese. Sweet oak and fruit and the beginning of age (dried fruit). Wonderful supple, well-balanced palate with a convincing length. Modernist, but well done.

Score – 17p (Jancis Robinson, 2014)

A total knockout wine, offers up a compelling melange of dark cherry, menthol, smoke, game, tobacco & licorice. The wilder, gamier side of Sangiovese comes through loud & clear in this superb, rich wine.

The label includes the famous view of the Valdichiana made in 1502 by Leonardo da Vinci at the Royal Collection for the Florentine State.

Jancis Robinson
JancisRobinson.com

Terroir:

4 ha of vineyards are located in the north-east in a hilly area, 300 above sea level. In ancient times there was the sea floor with lots of alluvial deposits and sand today, gravel and clay provide a perfect balance of moisture in the soil. The proximity of the lake Chiusi favorably affect the climate.

Vinification:

The TOP and first red wine of the company becoming part of 28 different clones of Sangiovese, 5 pre-filossera clones. Classic submerged cap fermentation. Ageing: 36 months in barrique and partly in Slavonia oak barrels of 20 hl, 24 months in bottles.

Variety: Sangiovese 100%

Residual Sugar: 2 g/L

Serving suggestion and food pairing: Best served at 17-18°C. Perfect accompaniment for dishes with meat courses, seasoned cheeses, game. Ideal wine for meditation!

Jancis Robinson'14

17p

Gambero Rosso'15

3 Glasses