History:

Badel 1862 is the largest and oldest wine and spirits producer in Croatia, continuing and cultivating the rich tradition inherited from the renowned companies Pokorny, Patria, Arko and Badel Vinoprodukt. Throughout its history Badel 1862 won numerous awards. The first one was obtained for Gorki Pelinkovac liqueur from Pokorny, the Silver Medal at the World's Fair, Paris, in 1867.

Korlat by Badel 1862 is an exclusive collection of handcrafted brandies and liqueurs made from Croatian fruits and brandies. Produced in small batches, only the best natural ingredients are selected and the recipes are refined in blind-tasted rounds - for the highest quality and unadulterated taste.

Vinification:

Made using carefully selected fruits sourced from the Benkovac region in Dalmatia. After removing apricot pits and crushing the apricot mash undergoes controlled alcoholic fermentation. Craft distillation in small batches. Only the highest-quality distillate cuts are retained to maintain purity and fruit character.

Serving suggestion and food pairing: goes well both on its own and as an addition to various cocktails. With a little ice or mixed with sparkling wine, it creates a refreshing drink for summer days and social occasions.
