

Rebel·lia White Do Utiel-Requena 2017

Bodegas Vegalfaro, Valencia, Spain

eCommerce # 508514 | 12.5% alc./vol. | $15.25

Clear and brilliant, straw yellow in colour with good intensity aromatics of citrus and tropical fruit; lime, lemon, mango over light toasted and spice notes from the oak aging. On the palate dry rich and unctuous with lime zest and peachy fruit, subtle spice and crisp acidity of considerable length.

Terroir:

The Vegalfaro Winery is located within the province of Valencia, in the region of La Plana de Requena-Utiel. 60 Ha of vineyards are divided into three very different vineyards due to the quality of soil, the microclimate and the grape varieties. All plots of land are certified Organic as well as is the winery and winemaking facilities. Rebel·lia White produced from Chardonnay and Sauvignon vineyards on the Finca Casa Alfaro and Pasamonte with very different soil characteristics being clay soil the first and limestone the second.

Vinification:

Harvested at first week of September. Cold pre-maceration designed to ferment only the flower must at low temperatures, and matured only the chardonnay in French oak casks, cane-stirring the fine lees.

Variety: Chardonnay 50% , Sauvignon Blanc 50%

Residual sugar: 1.5 g/L

Serving suggestion and food pairing: Serve at 8°C. Perfect accompaniment for seafood and green vegetables.
