Quinta do Mourão, Douro, Portugal

Douro Vino Selections, Los Angeles, United States

eCommerce # 585165 | 20.0% alc./vol. | $114.95 *subject to change

Intense, power packed aromatics with an array of baking spice, dried fruit, almond paste and candied hazelnuts. Silky caramel and butterscotch flavours along with peach and apricot preserves and a velvety ultra-rich texture.

Terroir:

Miguel Braga is a rising star in the Douro, known for his extraordinary Tawny Ports and red wines. Together with his family, he is carrying on the winemaking tradition begun by his father Mário, who purchased four properties and combined them into the current winery in one of the most stunning parts of the Douro Valley. In a magical environment, just a few minutes from the city of Peso Régua, here is the heart of the project Quinta do Mourão. Located on Lower Corgo in the District of Lamego. The Estate covers 37 Ha, including 26 Ha of beautifully terraced vines.

Variety: Touriga Nacional, Touriga Franca, Tinta Roriz, Tinta Barroca, Tinto Cao

Residual Sugar: 130 g/L

Serving suggestion and food pairing: Serve at 12°C on its own after dinner or with dessert, chocolate, nuts or long matured cheese. Perfect accompaniment for Pecan Pie, Panettone nutty cheeses.
