

Korlat Syrah 2014

Badel 1862 d.d., Zagreb, Croatia

eCommerce # 587682 | 13.7% alc./vol. | $31.60

This top quality red wine has a deep, dark, red and purple colours and a strong and rich structure. Intensively concentrated and seasoned with aromas of ripe berry fruits such as blackberry and black grapes. Strong complexity and personality of the bouquet are also complimented by well balanced aromas of coffee, black chocolate and a discreet aroma of tobacco which is partly a sign of aromatic potential and partly a result of nurture as well as wines aging in oak barrels. The wine is warm, balanced, permanent and ready for consummation.

Winery:

Badel 1862 is one of the largest and oldest wine and spirits producers in Croatia, continuing and cultivating the rich tradition inherited from the renowned companies Pokorny, Patria, Arko and Badel Vinoprodukt. Throughout its history Badel 1862 won numerous awards. The first one was obtained for Gorki Pelinkovac liqueur from Pokorny, the Silver Medal at the World's Fair, Paris, in 1867.

Terroir:

In 2004, as part of the winery Benkovac, people started building a new vineyard on the site Korlat. The 104 Ha of the vineyard area lies on the stone maquis. Vineyard Korlat is planted by seeds from France. The way of planting vineyards in rocky terrain, according to global standards is considered as pioneer venture. The vineyard has grown in extreme conditions on a terrain covered by stone along with Mediterranean foliage and it has its tipping point at the altitude of 300 meters above sea level. It is entirely faced towards the sea.
