

Ella Reserva Cabernet Sauvignon Apalta, Colchagua 2017

Vina Las Ninas, Libertador O'higgins, Chile

eCommerce # 673052 | 13.5% alc./vol. | $17.95

Organic

Ruby red colour with violet hints. Ripe fruit such as blueberries and plums with a touch of mint. Rich but elegant on palate with ripe tannins and a tasty end.

Terroir:

Founded in 1996 Vina Las Ninas has 160 Ha of vines in Apalta, the Colchagua Valley, two-hour drive south of Santiago.

In the local indigenous dialect Apalta means “quake”, the land itself being in the form of a small horseshoe shaped valley, sheltered to the north, east and west by hills, up to a height of 600 metres and bathed by the soft breezes that waft in-between the “cordillera” of the Andes mountains and the South Pacific. The Tinguiririca River marks the end of the valley to the South of Apalta, softens the climate. The soil is sandy-clay with rocky volcanic mix at the foothills.

Vinification:

Cold maceration for 48 hours followed by specially selected yeast fermentation and under controlled temperatures. 6 weeks of skin contacts prior to ageing in French oak.

Variety: Cabernet Sauvignon 100%

Residual sugar: 3.1 g/L

Serving suggestion and food pairing: Serve at ~17°C with game sausages, beef stew, pork ribs and rich veggie dishes.
