1000 Nights Agiorgitiko 2015 Tzivanis S.A., Sterea Ellada, Greece

eCommerce # 700350 | 14.0 % alc./vol. | $24.30

An organic wine from indigenous and complex Agiorgitiko which encapsulates special characteristics of the local microclimate. Deep purple colour, exciting aromas of vanilla and a rich taste of mature black fruits, offering a truly unique finish.

History & Terroir:

Phaedon, father of George Tzivani started to craft family's first biologically produced wines in 1960.

George, with the encouragement of his wife, Chrissie, in 1982, started cultivating Greek and European varieties on 110HA area, in Ristona Evoia, Arma Voiotia and other key regions in Greece. Tzivani Estate organic wines are produced only on family's low yield vineyards (every vine produces one bottle of wine) that gently slope from the winery building located on a 400-450 m elevation hill.

Vinification:

Oak aged for 12 months.

Variety: Agiorgitiko 100%

Residual Sugar: 2 g/L

Serving suggestion and food pairing: Can be cellared or decant well and serve at 18°C with Mediterranean gastronomy "red" dishes.
