

Representing Star Producers Globally,

Servicing Star Markets Locally

Kyklos White Selection 2018 Tzivani S.A., Sterea Ellada, Greece

eCommerce # 700384 | 13.5 % alc./vol. | $20.20

The indigenous Athiri and the cosmopolitan Sauvignon blanc blend their qualities to give an elegant organic wine with bright colour, wild flowers and peach aromas, opulent mouth and charming finish.

Phaedon, father of George Tzivani started to craft family's first biologically produced wines in 1960.

George, with the encouragement of his wife, Chrissie, in 1982, started cultivating Greek and European varieties on 110HA area, in Ristona Evoia, Arma Voiotia and other key regions in Greece. Tzivani Estate organic wines are produced only on family's low yield vineyards (every vine produces one bottle of wine) that gently slope from the winery building located on a 400-450 m elevation hill.

Varieties: Sauvignon Blanc 80 %, Athiri 20%

Residual Sugar: 2 g/L

Serving suggestion and food pairing: Serve at 12°C with fish, pork and "white" Mediterranean cuisine.