

Vermouth Vittore Red

Valsan1831, B.Cherubino Valsangiacomo, Valencia, Spain

eCommerce #778100 | 15.0% alc./vol. | $17.80

own recipe since 1904,

selection of Mediterranean & Alpine botanicals

Balsamic aromas that remind of Mediterranean herbs and spices like fennel, liquorice and thyme, with some sweet notes of vanilla and citrus peel. On the palate, cinnamon and vanilla are clearly present, together with liquorice and clove, over a lightly bitter background.

History & Terroir:

Cherubino Valsangiacomo Winery was founded in 1831 by Giovanni and Vittore Valsangiacomo in the Swiss town of Chiasso, near the border with Italy. In 1890, Cherubino, the son of Giovanni, in connection with the expansion of market brings business to Valencia. In 1923 2 new wineries were acquired, one in Utiel and the other in Valencia. In 2002 a new modern factory in Chiva was built. The Valsangiacomo Family owns 10 and controls >750 hectares (most of them for over 30 years now) of vineyards. The family bottled the first Vermouth in 1904.

Vinification:

Produced according to the family's own recipe since 1904, using a selection of botanicals of Mediterranean and Alpine origin.

Sugar: 140 g/L

Serving suggestion and food pairing: Serve at 13°C. It can be served with ice cubes and an olive, or with orange peel. Perfect as an aperitif or as a digestive after dinner.

Wine Enthusiast'18

88p

