Intense ruby colour, aromatic bouquet of currant and cherry combined with elegant oaky notes.

History & Terroir:

Swiss immigrants started winemaking settlement in the village of Shabo, Belgorod-Dnestrovsky district, Odessa region in 1822. Now Shabo Winery has over 1,200 Ha of vineyards between the Black Sea and the Dniester estuary planted with 4 million vines, 30 grape varieties. Shabo crafts most awarded internationally wines and brandies from Ukraine. Mild steppe climate softened with sea and river influence, alluvial brown clay reach soils.

Vinification:

Made from selected grapes grown on special micro-parcels of unique Shabo terroir grape quantity per vine is limited to 1.4 kg and the level of polyphenolic ripeness of grapes is constantly controlled. The grape harvested by hand at dawn. Grape bunches after being harvested in compact boxes are delivered within 15 minutes by refrigerators to micro vinification cellar. Immediately after harvesting, grapes undergo double sorting at the elite wine section. After that, red variety grapes are sent to fermentation 'on pulp' in Taransaud.
