

VINA VILANO CRIANZA 2013

Bodega Vina Vilano, D.O. Ribera del Duero, Spain

LCBO #82180 | 13.5% alc./vol. | $23.95 | Release: 07-Jul-2018

"This red shows a thick, muscular structure, with muted flavour of blackberry, leafy, loamy earth and mineral. Has good concentration, balance and depth, but needs time to unwind. Best from 2017 through 2027."

Score – 91p (Michael Schachner, Wine Spectator, 2016)

Terroir:

Viña Vilano lies in Pedrosa, a little place well known as a Grand Cru of the D.O. Ribera del Duero. The estate has >300 hectares, planted with Tempranillo at >900m elevation on poor sandy-clay soils. Grapes picked from one of the oldest vineyards of the region (~35 y.o. on average), with many vines 100 years and older.

Vinification:

Fermented during 10 days at 28°C and macerated for another 14 days. Aged 14 months in American and French oak barrel and over 24 months in bottles.

Variety: Tempranillo 100%

Residual Sugar: 4 g/L

Serving suggestion and food pairing: Decant and serve at 18°C. Perfect accompaniment for the roasted lamb and roasted suckling pig, pork, stewed rabbit, rice dishes, spaghetti Bolognese, aged cheeses.
