"Voskevaz Wine Cellar" LLC, Aragatsotn, Armenia

eCommerce # 854893 | 13.0% alc./vol.

Voskevaz White Dry wine is freshness in a glass. Citrus fruits and white spring flowers. It is an elegant white wine with a well-balanced acidity and a refreshing aftertaste.

History & Terroir:

Voskevaz Winery was established in 1932 and located in Aragatsotn region of Armenia in the village by the same name, "Voskevaz" ("golden bunch" in Armenian). The remains of "Badali Jam" church built in the 5th-7th centuries are just a couple of kilometres away, on the edge of the picturesque gorge of river Kasakh. Parts of karases (Armenian clay amphorae which were dug into the ground and used to ferment & age the wine) were found nearby.

Vinification:

Handpicked grapes are gently pressed in the pneumatic press, with following cold sedimentation and fermentation at low temperatures. Aged in stainless steel tanks.

Variety: Kangun 70%, Voskehat 30%

Residual sugar: 2 g/L

Serving suggestion and food pairing: Serve at 12°C with goat cheeses or seafood appetizers. Perfect accompaniment for Mediterranean and Armenian cuisine.
