Badel 1862 d.d., Zagreb, Croatia

eCommerce #863480 | 40.0% alc./vol. | $39.35 | 1L

The world-famous plum variety known as "Bistrica" is the basis of this flavoursome plum brandy. Rich and full plummy aroma with woody, vanilla and toasted almonds notes. Smooth, slightly dry feel, lingering tastes of plum and oak.

Similar spirits are produced in France, Germany, Switzerland and in many Balkan countries where they are collectively called "Slivovitz." ("Slivovica" in Croatia and Region, "slibovitz" in Romania.)

Badel Hrvatska Stara Šljivovica achieved a cult status comparable with the status of whisky in Scotland.

History:

Badel 1862 is the largest and oldest wine and spirits producer in Croatia, continuing and cultivating the rich tradition inherited from the renowned companies Pokorny, Patria, Arko and Badel Vinoprodukt. Throughout its history Badel 1862 won numerous awards. The first one was obtained for Gorki Pelinkovac liqueur from Pokorny, the Silver Medal at the World's Fair, Paris, in 1867.

Production:

Carefully harvested at the optimum ripeness native plum variety Bistrica fruits are fermented and distilled, under the old tradition with a few secrets in fruit processing, preservation and aging.

Serving tips:

The bouquet of Badel Plum Brandy is best enjoyed at room temperature in brandy tulips as an after-dinner drink or as an ingredient in fine desserts or confections. Badel Hrvatska Stara Šljivovica will reveal its elegance if you serve it chilled as an aperitif or with prunes after a meal. Thanks to its aromatic flavour it's becoming an integral component to many cocktails.

Traditionally, Croatians enjoy Plum Brandy with dried prunes as a digestive. Alternatively try it from the freezer as an aperitif.
