

Representing Star Producers Globally,

Servicing Star Markets Locally

TERRAS DE VIRIATO RED 2015 DOC DAO

Caves Campelo, S.A., Braga, Portugal

eCommerce # 904937 | 13.0% alc./vol. | $13.05

Clear, garnet with brownish reflections, given by its bottle ageing. Elegant with berry notes. Soft and velvety, with a good balance between alcohol and acidity. Good persistence, highlighting the characteristics of each of the four grapes in the blend.

History & Terroir:

José Carlos Lima & Sons own the winery for over a decade, while respecting the traditional values and quality they bring personal youthful touch to the exceptionally friendly wines they create.

Caves Campelo is one of the oldest Vinho Verde producers, it started in 1923 and officially was founded in 1951. Campelo group today has grown, it vinifies, bottles and distributes wines and brandy from several regions: Vinhos Verde, Douro, Dão and Port Wine.

Dão Region located in North Central Portugal, in the basin of Dão river. Surrounded on all sides by mountains it is protected both from the direct influence of the continental climate, and from the chill and rains from the ocean. The soil is very poor and granitic, with some schist.

Vinification:

Produced from selected grapes, with temperature-controlled fermentation in stainless steel vats. Aged in French oak barrels for 6 months and over 3 years in the bottle.

Varieties: Touriga Nacional 40%, Tinta Roriz 30%, Jaen 20%, Alfrocheiro 10%

Residual sugar: 2 g/L

Serving suggestion and food pairing: Serve at 16°C with red meat, lamb and cured cheeses.

Mundus Vini'17
International Wine Challenge

Silver Commended

