

Rebel·lia Red Do Utiel-Requena 2019

Bodegas Vegalfaro, Valencia, Spain

eCommerce # 917665 | 14.0% alc./vol. | $15.10

Organic

Dark black cherry hue with good intense nose and predominant strong red and black fruits, soft toasted notes. Fresh in the mouth, laced with tannin, good acidity and finish.

Terroir:

The Vegalfaro Winery is located within the province of Valencia, in the region of La Plana de Requena-Utiel. 60 Ha of vineyards are divided into three very different vineyards due to the quality of soil, the microclimate and the grape varieties. All plots of land are certified Organic as well as is the winery and winemaking facilities. Rebel·lia Red produced from Tempranillo, Garnacha tintorera and Bobal vineyards on the Estate Casa Alfaro, where the vines are espaliered and vase in chalky clay soil with a gravel subsoil.

Vinification:

Harvested at Mid-September until last week of October. Blend of several different fermentations, and aged in Hungarian oak for about 4 months.

Variety: Tempranillo 65%, Garnacha Tintorera 35%

Residual sugar: 2 g/L

Serving suggestion and food pairing: Serve at 16°C. A great BBQ wine and ideal party winner.

JAMES SUCKLING.COM

James Suckling (18vntg)

91p

International organic Wine Award (18vntg)

Gold

James Suckling (17vntg)

90p

Guía Peñín (15vntg)

90p

Wine Contest SUB30 (15vntg)

Gold

International Wine Guide Catavinum (15vntg)

Gold