Yellow-green, peppery-spicy notes, fresh and juicy, harmonious and digestible. Luscious and spicy on the palate, fresh citrus fruit and green apple, powerful and harmonious, elegance in the aftertaste.

Winery & Terroir:

Austria's biggest and possibly oldest wine producer. The Lenz Moser estate winery in Rohrendorf near Krems was first mentioned in 1040 in documents, it is now considered as one of the pioneers in Austrian wine culture. For example, the "Lenz Moser high Training System" was invented here, it revolutionised viticulture in the mid 1950. Lenz Moser works exclusively with winegrowers and wine-making collectives from Lower Austria and Burgenland.

Vinification:

Vinified in the traditional way in steel tanks at a controlled low temperature.
